CBC Radio has broadcast countless Xmas stories and poems through the years. The Twelve Days of Xmas. The Loudest Tone of voice? and laughed out loud at poet John Julius Norwich's clever twist on the tale? Listeners have got rejoiced in the wry humour of Grace Paley? With something for all ages, this entertaining audio compilation includes heartwarming Christmas fiction by Margaret Laurence, Roy MacGregor, Tim Wynne-Jones, Maureen Hull, Annie Dillard, Grace Paley, and Heinrich Boll. The Xmas Spoon. Today, for the first time, these seasonal treasures can be appreciated on CD. It also features poetry by such celebrated Canadian poets as P.K. Page, Milton Acorn, and John Terpstra, as well as Britain's John Julius Norwich and Wendy Cope. A GLOBAL Christmas makes enjoying Christmas literature as easy as playing Christmas music. A much loved fable? An International Christmas brings together seven stories and eight poems by well-known authors from Canada, America, Britain, and Germany. Stage into the sneakers of a repentant German hubby in a touching tale by Heinrich Boll, and consider the aftermath of all those Christmas-morning sweets in the hilarious American poem The Night After Christmas. Encounter a northern Xmas in Roy MacGregor? Therefore put another log on the fire and listen in!
