

The background of the book cover is a complex, abstract composition. It features a grid of overlapping, semi-transparent geometric shapes in shades of blue, green, and purple. In the center, there is a blurred, low-angle photograph of a person's face, looking upwards. The overall aesthetic is modern and intellectual.

The literature surveys presented in this edited volume offer readers with up-to-date critiques on eleven modern topics in financing. Topics include unconventional monetary policy, implicit lender guarantees, and economic fraud - all linked to the outstanding event of the Global Financial Crisis. Explores how latest studies on inflation risk premia and financing and efficiency have benefitted from new empirical strategies and the availability of relevant data. Demonstrates how angel investing, venture capital, relationship lending and microfinance have benefitted from increased analysis as they have grown to be more seasoned. Investigates crowdfunding and crypto-currencies that have both arisen from recent technological developments.
