This Book Is SUCCESSFUL! Each of them look yummy and simple enough to prepare. There will be the main versions and then a listing of about 4-6 variation ideas for each main recipe..organized by food type, easy the follow instructions and bonus tips. Also FYI, the 500 recipes are not exactly 500 unique quality recipes. lots of recipes..who knew? :O) Not bad This book has many great ideas, however the recipes to me appear to be small portions of posh, artsy food instead of what I had for tapas when I was in Andalusia, Spain. Do not get me wrong, there are several "traditional" recipes, and others look actually tasty and I'll make those dishes too. It's that if you are looking for something which has a more traditional feel then you may be disappointed with this one. Maybe it was the region I'm familiar with vs the vast variety found in that large, diverse country. I'm no expert, this was simply my impression. There's even a section on tapas desserts.. exceptional book. All with photos. After spending 3 weeks in Spain i just look forward to trying several recipes. Beautiful photos for EVERY recipe. In the event that you only had that one tapas cookbook, it could be all you'd need. Fantastic Wow, this reserve has it all. This is an excellent change from the typical content hour fare or makes an excellent light meal. Well worth the money. Tapas- a lot more than you'll ever make use of...
