

The book cover features a dark blue background with a large, stylized Bitcoin logo on the left side. The logo is composed of a yellow chain forming the 'B' shape, with a small circle in the center. The right side of the cover is divided into three horizontal sections: a dark blue top section, a yellow middle section containing the title, and a dark blue bottom section containing the author's name. The title and subtitle are in yellow, while the author's name is in white.
