The Jews of Iberia: A Short History

continue reading

The history of Jews in Spain and Portugal spans a lot more than thousand years. Legends describe the arrival of the initial settlers to the days of the biblical prophet Obadiah, but archeologically speaking, the 1st record of Jews is much later. By most methods, it really is even longer compared to the large-scale settlement of Jews in the property of Israel which was interrupted several times in Jewish history. It offers a special focus on the rise of the Conversos, Jews who were forcibly changed into Christianity. This book includes a synopsis of Jewish life in the Iberian Peninsula from its start through the Expulsion. Uncover the fascinating history of Sephardic Jews.
