In a global torn aside by an unpopular war, Gary--a dropout from UC Berkeley--flees to Mexico to escape the political turmoil and riots-and, most importantly, to avoid being drafted and sent to Vietnam. . He meets, and falls deeply in love with, a beautiful corrupted young girl from Beverly Hills. Can he end up being consumed by this illusive burning up dream. He involves feel he is offering his soul for the possession of the girl, cash, and the glitzy Hollywood life style they represent. The romance, and the smuggling, forces him to confront a darker part of life, and of himself. . Now a fugitive, he becomes mixed up in smuggling of Pre-Columbian artifacts, and cocaine.or can he come across the courage to keep everything behind, face the consequences of his actions, and create a fresh life for himself?
