Far left-wing screed The author has strong leftist feelings which book was more about how exactly cryptocurrencies can finally make us all equal and achieve world peace. I don't believe it can, or can, and I don't think that's how we'll get to better outcomes in any case, This snippet is revealing: "Capitalism can be a caste system. I dreamed of being truly a burglar and stealing from the wealthy. I grew up in a lower-middle course suburb. As a boy, I seemed all as well aware of this. I couldn't understand why a boy being born into a different family could get access to so much more than me." I believe the author thinks by creating enough rules and tinkering plenty of with cryptocurrencies we can finally appear to a spot where no one is poor, students are paid to learn, everyone can live where they want. It's more of a fantasy that finally cryptocurrency gives us the indicate to regulate the behavior of money itself and we are able to force the end result we want. But in the 30 or so pages it didn't even really construct how that could happen.
