The fifth problem of the Interdisciplinary Journal for Religion and Transformation in Contemporary Society (J-RaT) centers around this issue of religion, transformation and sex/gender. The multifaceted connections between religious beliefs, transformation and sex/gender are concretized within an abundance of materials and symbolic phenomena and are examined beginning with different subject-specific and methodical techniques. Transformation is understood right here as modification, alteration and reformatting. The center point will end up being on spiritual and cultural transformation processes and their repercussions on gender roles, constructs and representations on the one hand, and on sex and/or gender transformations which are embedded in the context of particular religious traditions on the additional.
