The beliefs section focuses on the wisdom behind the creation of humankind and jinn. The biography of Abu-Bakr (ra) is discussed in this section as well. The biography of the Prophet (s) concentrating on the events before the Hijrah constitutes the Seerah section. Learners are required to recite the complete 29th Juzu' and memorize Soorat Al-Mursalaat and Soorat Al-Insaan. The five pillars are one of them section and offered along with related proof from the Qur'an and the Sunnah. Salah and its prerequisites, pillars, obligatory functions, and all other relevant aspects represent the training content for the Spiritual Observances learning region. The Morals and Manners section handles the remembrances said when entering and departing the masjid along with those uttered after Salah. The materials is presented, using a spiral strategy, where students revisit each area and study it in higher depth every year. The Student's Textbook provides the subject text of the lessons, exercises and also activities.
