Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten Books (4-6 years): The Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten levels consist of three books for each stage: a student book, a workbook and a teacher's guide. Lessons for both of these grades are built so the three books are integrated and coordinated, where in fact the student publication contains 8 educational units, and each unit includes many lessons, each of which presents one Arabic letter. International Curricula Business was keen on producing the books within both of these grades as family-friendly as possible, to enable kids to interact and achieve the educational goals lay out by the books. The Kindergarten books prepare the pupil for the elementary college level by including a number of writing activities, therefore enabling children to master the core language skills of reading, listening, speaking and writing. To do this, two delightfully childlike character types that reside in realistic families come in the books: the Bulbula figure in the Kindergarten books and the Katkoot figure for the Pre-Kindergarten books, both of which help provide the educational material closer to the hearts and thoughts of children.
