At this level, the manifestation of the Greatness of Allah in and through the creation and the need for ihsaan are emphasized. College students are introduced to narratives of Prophet Muhammad (s). Qur'anic studies include the memorization and recitation of Soorat An-Naba' through Soorat Al-Inshiqaaq, as well as basic explanations of these soorahs. Care of the masjid and other public property is stressed. The worship section deals with the adhaan, obligatory situations of prayer and the need for performing salaah with congregation. The grade concludes with lessons on the importance of developing great manners towards one's neighbors and others. The materials is presented, utilizing a spiral strategy, where students revisit each region and research it in better depth each year. The Teacher's Manual consists of suggestions for teaching each lesson, suggested pedagogical procedures and answers to exercises and activities within the Student's Textbook and the Activity Book.
