Building upon the two testimonies of the Shahaadah, college students are presented to the elements of faith. The Student's Textbook contains the subject text of the lessons, exercises in addition to activities. College students are also taught to respect the privileges and property of their family members, teachers, and others. Useful lessons in the functionality of prayer, as well as the appropriate number of rak'aat for each salah, are integral components of this quality. They learn additional features of Prophet Muhammad (s) and also the obligatory aspects of ablution. The materials is presented, utilizing a spiral approach, where college students revisit each area and research it in better depth every year. They increase their knowledge of the Qur'an through memorization and recitation of Soorat al-Burooj through Soorat Ash-Sharh with short explanations for every soorah.
