The beliefs section focuses on the wisdom behind the creation of humankind and jinn. The five pillars are one of them section and provided along with related evidence from the Qur'an and the Sunnah. Learners are required to recite the entire 29th Juzu' and memorize Soorat Al-Mursalaat and Soorat Al-Insaan. THE EXPERIENCE Book engages the pupil in additional activities on a single lessons dealt with in the Student's Textbook. The difference is normally that the activities in the experience Book are more analysis - and - synthesis structured, than simple recall type activities. Salah and its prerequisites, pillars, obligatory acts, and all the relevant factors represent the learning content for the Spiritual Observances learning region. The material is presented, using a spiral approach, where college students revisit each area and study it in higher depth each year. The Morals and Manners section deals with the remembrances stated when entering and departing the masjid and also those uttered after Salah. The biography of the Prophet (s) focusing on the events leading up to the Hijrah constitutes the Seerah section. The biography of Abu-Bakr (ra) is talked about in this section as well. Gleam more practical aspect aligned to actions in the experience Book.
