The beliefs section targets the wisdom behind the creation of humankind and jinn. The material is presented, using a spiral approach, where learners revisit each region and study it in higher depth each year. THE EXPERIENCE Book engages the college student in additional actions on a single lessons dealt with in the Student's Textbook. The biography of the Prophet (s) focusing on the events before the Hijrah constitutes the Seerah section. The biography of Abu-Bakr (ra) is normally talked about in this section as well. Salah and its own prerequisites, pillars, obligatory functions, and all other relevant aspects represent the training content for the Religious Observances learning area. The difference can be that the activities in the Activity Book are more analysis - and - synthesis centered, than simple recall type actions. The five pillars are one of them section and offered along with related evidence from the Qur'an and the Sunnah. Learners must recite the entire 29th Juzu' and memorize Soorat Al-Mursalaat and Soorat Al-Insaan. The Morals and Manners section handles the remembrances stated when entering and leaving the masjid as well as those uttered after Salah. Gleam more practical element aligned to activities in the Activity Book.
