This level commences with lessons in 'aqeedah about the implications of imitating others. In this grade, learners will recite the 28th Juz' and memorize Soorat Al-Qiyaamah and Soorat Al-Muddaththir. It also includes a debate about the indicators of Allah (swt) which provide proof of His Oneness. The most important aspects of Jumu'ah Salah, the status of Zakah, and the adhkaar said before sleeping and upon awakening are discussed as well. The difference is normally that the actions in the experience Book are more evaluation - and- synthesis structured, than simple recall type actions. The Seerah lessons deal with the Hijrah and the life of 'Umar Ibn Al-Khattaab (ra). The final lessons in this publication cover the importance of good friends and the threat of bad ones. The materials is presented, utilizing a spiral strategy, where students revisit each region and research it in higher depth each year. The Activity Book engages the pupil in additional activities on the same lessons dealt with in the Student's Textbook. Students will find out about wiping over the socks and additional materials such as for example bandages and plasters. Glean more practical aspect aligned to activities in the experience Book.
