This level commences with lessons in 'aqeedah about the implications of imitating others. Glean more practical factor aligned to activities in the Activity Book. In this grade, learners will recite the 28th Juz' and memorize Soorat Al-Qiyaamah and Soorat Al-Muddaththir. The final lessons in this reserve cover the significance of friends and the danger of bad ones. Learners will learn about wiping over the socks and various other materials such as bandages and plasters. The most significant areas of Jumu'ah Salah, the status of Zakah, and the adhkaar said before going to sleep and upon awakening are talked about aswell. The Seerah lessons deal with the Hijrah and the life of 'Umar Ibn Al-Khattaab (ra). The difference is that the actions in the experience Book are more evaluation - and- synthesis centered, than basic recall type activities. THE EXPERIENCE Book engages the college student in additional activities on the same lessons handled in the Student's Textbook. The materials is presented, using a spiral approach, where college students revisit each region and research it in greater depth every year. It also carries a discussion about the indicators of Allah (swt) which provide proof His Oneness.
