CBC Radio has broadcast countless Christmas stories and poems through the years. Listeners have rejoiced in the wry humour of Grace Paley's tale "The Loudest Voice" and laughed aloud at poet John Julius Norwich's clever twist on "The Twelve Times of Christmas." A GLOBAL Christmas makes enjoying Christmas literature as easy as playing Christmas music. So put another log on the fire and listen in! With something for all age groups, this entertaining sound compilation includes heartwarming Xmas fiction by Margaret Laurence, Roy MacGregor, Tim Wynne-Jones, Maureen Hull, Annie Dillard, Grace Paley, and Heinrich Boll. Web page, Milton Acorn, and John Terpstra, along with Britain's John Julius Norwich and Wendy Cope.K. It also features poetry by such celebrated Canadian poets as P. Experience a northern Christmas in Roy MacGregor's much loved fable "The Christmas Spoon." Step into the sneakers of a repentant German husband in a touching story by Heinrich Boll, and consider the aftermath of all those Christmas-morning sweets in the hilarious American poem "THE NIGHT TIME After Christmas." Right now, for the very first time, these seasonal treasures can be appreciated on CD. A GLOBAL Christmas includes seven tales and eight poems by well-known authors from Canada, the United States, Britain, and Germany.
