The Dawn of Liberty: By 2050, an underground network and economy is thriving built on crypto currencies and a free of charge and open global mesh network. The state, resorting to secret laws and mob style methods, intend to remove this free network and anyone using crypto currencies. The free of charge wheeling marketplaces and innovative solutions are challenging the energy of the condition and their crony corporations. The New World Purchase series follows cypher punks on a mission to weaken and undermine a huge state backed corporation, and additional increase the influence of the crypto economy. The mesh is certainly resilient, crypto currencies solid, and hi-tech software and hardware built-in basements around the world stays one step forward. While crypto groupings are aligned in their goals, and collaborate with the united alliance to build and keep maintaining the global mesh, there is also infighting and power struggles between crypto currencies, crypto currency forks, and between ultra wealthy large crypto holders. But that is proving to become more challenging than anticipated. In this initial episode, The Contract, elite cypher punks are hired by effective crypto anarchists on a objective of infiltration.
