

CryptoWorld 2050:
Dawn of Liberty

A futuristic city street at night. In the foreground, a sleek, dark-colored car is driving away from the viewer. The street is wet, reflecting the colorful lights from the buildings and traffic. In the background, several tall, modern buildings are illuminated with vibrant green and purple lights. The sky is dark and cloudy. The overall atmosphere is one of a high-tech, cyberpunk-inspired urban environment.

The Dawn of Liberty: By 2050, an underground network and economy is thriving built on crypto currencies and a free and open global mesh network. The free wheeling markets and innovative providers are challenging the energy of the state and their crony companies. The Old Money series follows the large condition backed corporations and authorities, who control all the major industries with their monopolies and crony laws and regulations. But that is proving to become more challenging than anticipated. They are being challenged by the cypherpunks who seek free wheeling online marketplaces. While crypto organizations are aligned within their goals, and collaborate with the united alliance to build and keep maintaining the global mesh, additionally there is infighting and power struggles between crypto currencies, crypto currency forks, and between ultra rich huge crypto holders. The state, resorting to secret laws and mob style methods, intend to remove this free network and anyone using crypto currencies. The mesh can be resilient, crypto currencies solid, and hi-tech software and hardware built in basements all over the world stays one step forward. In this second show, The Aria, corporations learn about their assassin's failures, and prepare for battle against satoshi's.
