The Dawn of Liberty: By 2050, an underground network and economy is thriving built on crypto currencies and a free of charge and open global mesh network. The mesh is certainly resilient, crypto currencies solid, and hi-tech software and hardware built-in basements all over the world stays one step forward. The condition, resorting to secret laws and mob style techniques, intend to take down this free of charge network and anyone using crypto currencies. But this is proving to be more challenging than anticipated. The free wheeling markets and innovative solutions are challenging the energy of the condition and their crony companies. While crypto organizations are aligned in their goals, and collaborate with the united alliance to build and maintain the global mesh, additionally there is infighting and power struggles between crypto currencies, crypto currency forks, and between ultra wealthy huge crypto holders. The Aged Money series follows the large condition backed corporations and federal government, who control all of the major industries with their monopolies and crony laws. In this third episode, The Recitative, CHA Industries torture their captor, up until they realize cypherpunks possess infiltrated the very building. They are becoming challenged by the cypherpunks who seek free wheeling online markets.
