

The Number of the Beast

The Greatest Discovery in the History of Christianity

Hon. Dr. Rabbi Sol Adoni

Sol Adoni Chi lota Sigma True Number of the Beast

For centuries the amount of the Beast has been incorrectly provided as Chi Xi Digamma. The first theologian to correctly translate these three letters today as Chi lota Sigma was the Hon.s Ashmolean Museum archive of the Oxyrhynchus Papyri dig and it proves the real Quantity of the Beast was Chi lota Sigma, if they're Greek Letters at all. However, the Roman Church was greatly influenced by St. A fresh number in Greek Gematria is certainly given in this book, in addition to a totally new probability these letters may end up being a straightforward Roman Numeral code for a name JESUS GAVE concerning whom Jesus claimed was Lucifer in Luke 10:18. Actually St.For centuries there has been academic debate over if 666 is the correct number. Jerome who authored the Latin Vulgata over 1600 years ago used a different number than 666. The ground breaking info in the book Chi Iota Sigma The True Number of the Beast reveals that 666 cannot be the number of the Beast. Irenaeus and ended up using 666. Recent archaeological finds have found the oldest fragments of scripture for Revelations 13:18 as see in the images in this book and the 1st scholar to say the right letters had been Chi Iota Sigma can be Dr. Rabbi Sol Adoni. The ancient Greek Sigma was a letter that appeared similar to our modern letter C, and as you can view in the pictures in this book. It is just academics whose ancient incorrect spiritual dogma insist that the letter that represents our contemporary letter C is normally a digamma and not what it was really, that being the ancient Greek letter for a Sigma. The image in this book is the oldest fragment in the wonderful world of Revelations 13:18 from the Oxford University' Dr. Sol Adoni. Unbiased academics around the world that have no genuine theological dogmatic prejudices in offering a correct translation of these ancient characters are agreeing today with Dr. Sol Adoni the true number of the Beast is Chi Iota Sigma.
