Following the third edition of the turnkey series, I offer opportunities on four crypto currencies including Bitcoin, Euthereum, Monero and less known Augur. I always advocate having skills in money management. Here I've defined take take mainly because the objective is to invest on one of the currencies on long as far as possible and based on the future trend on this type of currency. In the same way as in earlier volumes I propose an order of access, the stop loss associated.
