This is a tough situation and in the event that you miss investing then you will regret like you missed bitcoins. You will never need 10000$ nor 1000$ and just only $100 to start with investing one cryptocurrency on a monthly basis. Only the investors make the amount of money and traders have equivalent losses because it's risky. I recommend to be an investor rather than a trader (This is exactly what We learnt after losing lots of money and after repeated failures,) Hold till you get earnings or let it go to zero. Have an extended term approach! This is the time to purchase other altcoins for long term. The profit percentage will be better than any other investment and Don't dump all your money on coins. Usually the hero or zero mindset, Invest when it's less cost and you will think it is in this book.!!
