Book of Jewish and Crypto-Jewish Surnames (DNA Consultants Series on Consumer Genetics 3)

With interest in genealogy and DNA increasing, many Americans are finding hidden or long-lost Jewish lines within their family tree. From unlikely areas like Scotland and the Appalachian Mountains to the Bible and archives of the Spanish Inquisition, this compendium may be the 1st to cover Conversos, Marranos and key Jews along with more familiar Central and Eastern European Jewries. Contains Joseph Jacobs' Appendix B provides a mixed name index to the indispensable When Scotland Was Jewish, Jews and Muslims in British Colonial America and THE FIRST Jews and Muslims of England and Wales, simply by Elizabeth Caldwell Hirschman and Donald N. Comprehensive index and bibliography. Appendix A includes 400 surnames from the Greater London cemetery Adath Yisroel. classic focus on Jewish Titles, chapter on Scottish clans and septs, thousands of Sephardic and Ashkenazic surnames from early colonial information and Rabbi Malcolm Stern' Yates.s 445 Early American Jewish Families.

Fascination I love genealogy and this book is so interesting. If you are into genealogy you will see this one fascinating. Exactly like his other books, this one makes you think.
