"We met way back in mid-2017, where we discussed approximately the continuing future of blockchain and DLT. The decision to invite him up to speed as an advisor to OriginTrail (origintrail.io) was pretty straightforward. Coupled with his years of experience in investment banking, he had helped steer GStar." iga Drev, Founder at OriginTrail" ŽWe met Anthony, one of the most experienced Fintech experts in a meeting in Singapore back in December where we discussed blockchain use cases for supply chains and trade financing. Anthony clearly knew how and where the crypto scene was developing. Anthony is at the top of the league being an advocate for blockchain technology in industrial and investment banking, having clear vision of the usefulness of the technology both at night hype and cynicism the market is in currently. His insights also helped prevent pricey mistakes, and this led to a much smoother execution of our task.AI to a very much greater height as our esteemed advisor."Terence Tan, CEO & Founder of GStar.AI
