Easy Read It's an easy go through. I needed this publication to greatly help understand if my child is certainly going through this. A Must Buy! been diagnosed with Irlen Syndrome which is a great book to explain her reading problems My daughter had been identified as having Irlen Syndrome which is a good book to describe her reading complications. The overlays help my dyslexic 7yr aged and I want to also get him tested. Although this was an instant and easy read, most of the info are available on the internet. The best area of the book was the sample pages of what people w/ irlen syndrome see. Offers helped educate me, my child, and the institution staff. The best part of the publication was the sample pages of what folks w/ irlen syndrome observe. I am only half way through the reserve and love it!. This is an excellent book. Great book! Three Stars I should have taken the information of other reviewers and skipped this reserve.. Five Stars To greatly help my Grandson! Loved the book! . It explains so very much to me!! This book explains the idea behind it! Five Stars Great read Five Stars Thank you Book transformed our lives! This book can change your daily life too or a family members life. This is essential browse or anyone who struggles with reading, head aches, migraines, & light sensitivity. This was an incredible book, changed my entire life, my daughters life, and many more around me too. One Star Really has nothing to do with helping people with dyslexia. It is an interesting circumstance and one I really believe affects many more people that don't know about this condition.
