Best for most general purposes Great book, great illustrations. I'm a big lover of vintage. The illustrations are very clear to provide you with a good idea of the general lines of the period.. I believe it belongs atlanta divorce attorneys design library.! LOTS of Fashion suggestions from the 1930s plenty of reference material quite nice not my favorite The book is as described, but the majority of the renderings are a bit amateurish. Somewhat disappointing but nonetheless it gets the style theme across. I expected a . design dream This book is quite helpful when performing research for costume design. I had not been very impressed because of it. Dover generally delivers! This is a fine publication of 1930s fashion images. A great Dover fashion book What is it possible to say in regards to a Dover book? not really a how-to.. I loved it images helped me with my project great pic plenty of examples reminded me of my mother era saw several varieties of grandmother Five Stars Very nice item, better still than pictured. Cost was very low and that was all it is worthy of. It is exactly as described - a assortment of fashion illustrations; Good buy. I'm a big enthusiast of vintage. Not great Cheap cost and I got what I paid for... In the event that you only need a general idea of the styles of the period, it's a good source. I expected a bit more from the book but it was just okay - I could get a small inspired fromv a few of the pics. .. Nevertheless, if you need more detail on a reasonably specific year or couple of years, or are trying to figure out how to reproduce these fashions, this book won't help. Terrific reference for those thinking about history, fashion, and the 1930s particularly.
