First Rate Look at What People Used to Wear As a writer, There is this book to be a wonderful source for my historical mysteries set in Kansas City around a hundred years or so ago.. Great Book for Fans of Victorian Fashion As a author of Victorian historical fiction, this book is an invaluable resource; however, it is also an excellent history of the style of the days and well worth the read. Well worth owning for anyone who wants to know how others lived and dressed. Four Stars good reference good reference Three Stars This was helpful to a degree. I've used this publication for research often when I needed this to describe a certain kind of clothing. During the victorian era.. Fascinating book with pages full of large photos of people and their clothing from the 1800's. Great reference book Great book of antique photos. I really like looking through this publication and it's so great to have real genuine people within their real authentic clothes (as opposed to drawings). Very satisfied - perfect gift for 15 year older Grand Daughter .. Five Stars Very enjoyable demonstration of photographs capturing the evolution of fashions for men, women and kids!.Author gives detailed info on clothing &. Loves of great pictures Ordered this book due to it had plenty of great great Victorian era photographs that I hope can inspire my drawings. Beautiful Victorian images Beautiful Victorian images...I bought it for a reference guide for clothing worn. Extremely satisfied - perfect gift for 15 year previous Grand Daughter dependent on the "Victorian Era". clothing. Full of great huge photos from the 1800's.It has more than served the purpose I bought it for.. Arrived promptly.Good obvious photos of a wide range of differing people & dates if known. But it's also an engaging reserve for anyone interested in history to scroll through to learn how people really dressed up in America in the 19th century.. Love these pictures Love these pictures.
