Great for our watch and copy actions toddler! In all honesty, I'm not a huge Eric Carle fan. A few of the children love the colorful illustrations and wonderful artwork. However, that one really stands out. Excellent quality - sturdy, excellent page thickness.. " and "I can do it" which includes been ideal for question asking, sociable communication in groupings, and expanding M. Contact your mind, bend your neck, touch your toes, etc. Love, love, love! Ideal for young babies and also toddlers I bought it for my 5mo child and he loves it. It's an excellent size board publication and perfect for his small hands. I love that one so much, because my 17 month old loves it. The Kids Love It There is not much to say concerning this book except that it is short and silly. Smaller Version than Expected Ordered these for my wife's pre-K class. I love the books, however they aren't our go to's. Other children benefit from the silly storyline and there are the children who like acting it out. Didn't recognize that the books would be so little. Every child I read this book to enjoys it for different reasons. Overall an excellent reserve that attracts many different kids. In the event that you were expecting a normal sized book, then consider the headline closely before purchasing.. It's ideal for him, since it encourages interaction. great quality out of this publisher Mainly because usual, great quality out of this publisher. Many of my kids do not get the actions initially, but they nonetheless appreciate reading an interactive publication. Eric Carle comes with an amazing way with illustrations but We thought the tale was different (I thought it had been teaching kids what each body part, but that is more on the subject of what they can do -- if that makes sense). The images are simple and colorful, and ones kids will love. Perfect learning device as we're teaching him what all of the body parts are. Nice publication but arrived damaged I love this content of the book, BUT the back cover was peeling off when it arrived. This book has shades, big and simple illustrations and several pages (There is lots of kids books have few web pages that may be finished within one minute). I'm sure he will enjoy it a lot more as he matures. Fun Book that Gets Little Ones Moving From Check out Toe is a fun-filled interactive publication that encourages children to stomp, bend and move like familiar animal friends. It's a lovely book but not sure I'd buy it again (but that's on me for being unsure of the story). Expanding Mean Amount of Utterance I bought this reserve for my speech-language therapy practice and We am happy by how applicable it really is to my college students' goals. Bummed. Recommended for children ages 2-6."This is a great book for teaching children to follow instructions, move their bodies, and develop confidence. - Sherry Ellis, author of Don't Feed the Elephant! Bright and Sturdy Great board book for this Grandma to read with the little ones. Parents survey this book is a bedtime preferred three weeks later. Evidently the three year previous has it memorized and "assists" the infant perform the motions. Parents substitute toys therefore baby isn't too abused. I have used this reserve in library story occasions, and the kids have loved it. The book contains repeating phrases "Is it possible to do it? He adores animals and all the pages have different things animals do, that you should copy. L.! My child beats up his plank books but these same to last. Of training course he doesn't understand the content yet, but he loves the illustration. The effect will be a lot of giggles, wiggles, and a resounding, "I could do it! He enjoys for us to learn the captions, look at the simple pictures, and then duplicate what's being done. Great intro to areas of the body with animals- sounds produced giggles! read the headline That is a board book. In case you are buying for a toddler, then perfect. Well, my wife can be assured that nobody else will have a similar books that she has in her classroom. Great book Great book Great story A fun interactive story for toddlers and up! Great buy! My child and I love this book! Please have this reserve !U. Recommend recommend Book Cute book for youthful preschoolers.
