The new edition of one of America's best-selling culinary reference books is bigger and much better than ever, with almost 6,000 listings on subjects linked to food and drink. Hailed by Bon Appétit magazine as "among the best reference books we've seen, a must for each and every cook's library," it's the ultimate kitchen device. A million readers can't be wrong--and they've found prior editions of the book invaluable. For those who who cooks--or who simply loves food--here's a good reference source and a superb cookbook supplement. Here are answers to questions about cooking techniques, meat cuts, kitchen utensils, food, wine, cocktail terms, and much more. Readers will also look for a completely revised and expanded appendix including a pasta glossary, a pan substitution chart, consumer info contacts, ingredient equivalents and substitutions, and more.
