

Catana Brown | Virginia C. Stoffel

Occupational Therapy in Mental Health

A Vision for Participation

Catana Brown PhD OTR FAOTA and

Occupational Therapy in Mental Health: A Vision for Participation

continue reading

"I can'That is a text we have all been waiting for... William Dutton, and Eleanor Clark Slagle, to name a few—Dr. Adolph Meyer, Dr.t help but believe our earlier leaders in mental health—who knew the energy of occupation and stressed the need for engagement within an enabling environment, would be pleased to see this work arrive to a format that could guide clinicians to make a difference in the everyday lives of people with mental issues that require the skills of an occupational therapist.Carolyn M. Baum, PhD, OTR/L,FAOTA Past President American Occupational Therapy Association (2004 to 2007) from the Foreword This Client-centered, recovery-oriented text gives tone of voice to the lived connection with mental illness over the life time."— You will be guided through the evaluation and interventions of individuals with mental health conditions and those whose life circumstances generate significant challenges to their participation in valued activities.

continue reading

