Are you obsessed by outfit?" --Spanish proverb"Most likely every brand-new and eagerly anticipated garment ever placed on since clothing arrived in fell a trifle brief of the wearer's expectation. The flourish of a creative spirit or an indicator of conformity to cultural norms? If therefore, you're in good company." --Sydney J. Jane Austen, Mae West, Christian Dior, Virginia Woolf, Andy Warhol, and Mark Twain are among the many who have their say. Arranged with incomparable flair, their remarks will help you solution the eternally vexing issue, "What shall I use? Harris"Brevity may be the soul of lingerie." -Oscar Wilde "Dress reaches all occasions a frivolous distinction, and excessive solicitude about any of it often destroys its goal." --Jane Austen"Show me the clothes of a country and I could write its background." --Virginia Woolf Do you question if your obsession is definitely a virtue or a vice?" --Charles Dickens"Avoid all enterprises that want new clothes." --Henry David Thoreau"Nearly every man looks way more in a belted trench coat. Juxtaposing quotations from Virgil to Coco Chanel, Tobi Tobias reassures us that the obsession with clothes is really as old as history itself." "You need to either be a work of art, or wear a masterpiece of design. we may make sure they are consider the mould of arm or breasts, however they would mould our hearts, our brains, our tongues with their liking." --Dorothy Parker"There is a lot to aid the view that it is clothes that use us and not we them;" --Anatole France"Only God helps the badly dressed.
