A lot of fun and educational! This book is very highly recommended. There is a glossary and set of internet sites for further study included. The illustrations are awesome. Young readers will come away with a solid knowledge of a wigmaker's day, the workings of the shop, including a description of the actual preparation and completion of a wig. Kathy Wilmore's entertaining examination of the wigmaker's trade in colonial occasions introduces visitors to the life of a wigmaker from apprentice, to journeyman, and lastly to master wigmaker.
