How do we understand the motivations and dynamics of the various character types we see in our intimate companions, our friends, or in our professional lives? People and organizations will gain deeper insights about themselves, their types, and others' personalities in order to have loving, mature, and compassionate interactions. This six-session study information is a content-wealthy companion to Suzanne Stabile's THE ROAD Between Us, discovering the nine Enneagram types and how they experience relationships.

Excellent Study Instruction Companion for PBU! Not what I was looking for Five Stars The book is really informative. Just fine Ok. If you're looking for the actual book simply for reading that isn't a workbook, take note this is the Study Guide not really the initial book - I bought it on accident, but ended up pleased to possess both.P. It can help to understand myself and how I can relate with other personality types. Great Book! Since working through THE ROAD Between Us by progressing a chapter at a time is probably not really the best way to engage this content, each program of the study information focuses on a specific theme that can be involved through the lens of each enneagram type. The best! The best! Excellent Resource, Highly Recommend This study guide for THE ROAD Between Us is excellent!This study guide has 6 main sessions accompanied by a section for leaders that provides recommended instruction for how to lead each session. The analysis guide is intended to be used with an organization, and Stabile encourages individuals to work through the materials after reading the main book. Suzanne may be the best when it comes to the enneagram. In a few ways, I might have in fact enjoyed it even more than the publication since it provides extremely helpful charts and helped me reflect well on what I go through. I recommend this resource for everybody who reads The Path Between Us, but specifically for those who are wanting assistance in how exactly to discuss it well with others. Though I will most likely not use the study guideline as it's made to be utilized since my team has different requirements, I am wanting to incorporate parts of it into training for my associates. The sessions include:1) THE VERY BEST Part of You Is the Worst Component of You2) What We Want3) What We Dread4) What We Offer5) Keeping ONE ANOTHER Forgiven and Free6) Methods to Help Ourselves and OthersMy leadership team is currently reading through THE STREET Back as an introductory to the enneagram, but I've been immersing myself over the last year in multiple enneagram resources in order to train them well.S. Excellent book, can be used as a person or reading together in a group setting.
