Couture Korea highlights traditional ways of dressing and shows how contemporary haute couture is rooted in Korean tradition. Interviews with contemporary style designers Jin Teok and Karl Lagerfeld and historians Minjee Kim and Cho Hyo Sook examine how traditional and modern clothing style reinvigorates Korean cultural identity. Through garments including baeja (woman's vest), po (man's outerwear), and baegilbok (child's outfit for the 100th-day special event), this Korean fashion publication explores how both genders dresses during different seasons, on special events, and according to public status.
