A GUIDE TO STYLE is one of the most comprehensive and concise how-to-gown books open to working ladies today. It is exclusive in its emphasis on the basic concepts of dressing and grooming, and will serve as an excellent lead and continuing reference for just about any woman who wants to improve her appearance, including those in the organization world, career workshops, and similar programs. A GUIDE TO STYLE is created without fluff in very clear, concise language. It is a full how-to-outfit handbook that proceeds methodically, step-by-stage, from balancing body proportions to hairstyle, makeup, color selection, accessories, and wardrobe, including a thorough list of total ensembles to use for work interviews and daily work. It really is illustrated, indexed, easy to read, and contains all the instruction a full novice must dress attractively and properly for just about any occasion.
