I think it's a good book for folks 60 and older who want to . I certainly would recommend this book.. Highly entertaining! Encouraging phrases for mature women and men who may foolishly believe themselves at night age for sexual activity. It's an easy read, plenty of good suggestions.. Four Stars Somewhat helpful. best for many, many laughs. I think it's an excellent book for folks 60 and older who want to benefit from the intimate relationship a husband and wife had if they were first married but life gets in the manner as it will with most lovers, with work and kids etc. so this book "guides" the 60 and older problem to those loving times that a couple got shared at a youthful amount of time in their lives. Good tips. I like the author's design. He appears to appreciate the subject of sex for the more mature. He handled the subject tastefully. Five Stars Ideal for a gift Four Stars okay good gag gift directed at our friends on the 45th wedding anniversary. Four Stars fun Just Do It! Many of us are second- or third-time arounders. Maybe I didn't go through far plenty of into this, but mainly because a widowed Baby Boomer, I felt it had been directed at long-married couples. My grief therapist explained that my generation - the Baby Boomers - are the fastest-developing segment of the population getting STD's. recommended reading for all lovers over 50 Meh!
