Could it be? I recently find out about groundbreaking DNA study where researchers proved that the human being body's DNA can easily be reprogrammed by human being speech... It explains how through applying scripture with your words you truly can avoid tragedy in your daily life."? Could it be that there is normally a primary correlation with Biblical guidelines such as for example Roman 12:2 which says that people are to be changed by the renewing of our mind? How to Avoid Tragedy reinforces this instructive and the countless other related passages. Helps you know how important your words are! I have yet to complete the publication, but I am motivated to pursue the renewing of my brain and my speech. Who knows, perhaps I'll turn into a living example of reprogrammed DNA. My life has changed through the revelation knowledge I got from reading this. This truth is indeed simple and easy to use . Important in this point in time.
