Barbara Jennings writes a compelling, riveting and personal tale about a highly unusual (and sometimes controversial) relationship spanning 50 years. She also shares 15 insights garnered through her life and her time caring for a terminally ill patient to guide others going right through similar circumstances or who may be questioning the energy of God. Echoes in Eternity is the story of two common people whose journey through life's extraordinary challenges drew them nearer to God and nearer to each other. Her poignant and occasionally shocking account of their youth, courtship, relationship, divorce, and deep continuing friendship is a testament to what can happen when love, rooted in God, triumphs against all odds and forgiveness abounds. Motivated by the quotation "How you live your life echoes in eternity," it highlights an unbelievable guy who humbly and quietly touched the lives of countless people in inspiring techniques left them changed forever. The author admits she has made huge mistakes in her life, but she hopes she might also change lives with this story. Arises from the reserve are donated to the research and fight against cancer.
