Lifetime outdoorsman and top notch fisherman, Joe Butler, has survived just about every outdoor hazard you can imagine and shares his years of knowledge and wisdom in Hazards in the outside. As a fishing instructor, book author and host to some of the very most amazing big seafood trips for the last 40 years, Joe presents the perfect mixture of valuable tips, security awareness, and existence lessons. You will delight as Joe recounts life stories and near death experiences and will observe how you as well as your loved ones can remain safe on all of your outdoor adventures. If you have a like for the outside, bring this book along and make sure you are prepared for anything!
