"The human body may be the most beautiful point to us, both inside and away." --Nick & Brian Wolfe
Inside the Magical Globe of Bodypainting From fine art to fashion and from marketing to competition, the world of bodypainting is huge and gorgeous. This book was inspired by the World Champion artists Brian Wolfe, who succumbed in his fight against pancreatic cancer in October 2013. A number of these performers have earned the coveted championship at the Globe Bodypainting Festival and every one holds a particular place within this key, joyful world of creativeness and art. It has brought together a massive creative community with years of history, creativity and knowledge. With The Human Canvas you will get front row chairs to the pageantry of mind-blowing pictures from accomplished artists all over the world. A portion of the arises from this project will head to support Brian Wolfe's wife and youthful girl. "Imagine a painter who may create an image from an idea in the fullness of color, style and expression, and then imagine this artist asking their canvas to sing, dance or scream. This event hosts the World Bodypainting Championships and offers distinguished and encouraged the talent. Receiving thousands of hours of broadcast time each year, the Globe Bodypainting Festival offers carried this talent in to the consciousness of everyday people on almost every continent. With gorgeous pictures and inside peeks in to the minds and processes of the artists, this book will inspire and amaze you. About the World Bodypainting Festival The World Bodypainting Festival in Austria has been among the driving forces in bodypainting over the past two decades." --Karala B.
