... After it's chock-full, they'll take it home as a keepsake to look back again on years from today, to observe how they've transformed and grown. It gets them seated immediately and calms them down. When they walk directly into our meeting, they grab their journal and start composing in them. They're generally excited to share what they wrote and it helps with their presenting and public speaking skills if they present it. books for my Young lady Scout troop plus they absolutely love writing in them I purchased 17 of the books for my Female Scout troop plus they absolutely love composing in them! Great product My daughter loved it!
