A Beautiful Cookbook I have several of Donna Hay's cookbooks in paperback. This and The New Classics are the 1st hardback books I have bought. Donna Hay's books are some of the most beautifully photographed cookbooks I've ever noticed. I'm a sucker for cookbooks and this is the best fresh one I've come across. The photos are slick, the ingredients not really exotic, the food delish. Your cookbook collection needs this book I have 3 Donna Hay cook books. Beautiful format and illustrations, simple straightforward recipes. Most of Donna's make books have pictures. Total disclosure, I have an dependence on cookbooks. I get them to cook from them. But I don't like cookbooks with odd substances and the more images the better. This one is the best by far. This one is beautiful. Unless you enjoy cooking, you'll be inspired to try. I highly recommend this cookbook if you are a foodie that likes to cook and maybe impress your family as long as you're at it. Anything Donna Hay will be brilliant I loved the original format of Donna's cookbooks and had not been immediately deeply in love with that one. But ... Every recipe includes a picture and it really teaches you how to cook. Donna Hay This is a beautiful cookbook with lovely colorful pictures. A winner. A cookbook that'll cause you to want to get ready every dish. Each is beloved. The recipes are not complicated and in the event that you enjoy cooking food, you use this book. Basic to Brilliant... That is my favorite. The different applications in one basic recipe are a great way to show any cook how easy it really is to be innovative in your kitchen. Recipes are doable with some with an increase of of a challenge. I've a couple of her previous books.. It is very very clear and easy to follow. A true cook's encyclopedia It's not basic, nonetheless it is brilliant! it grew on me to the point that I have already used it many times. but it is brilliant! Her quality recipes are simple however delicious and healthful. A genuine cook's encyclopedia. It is very crystal clear and easy to follow With the tv screen shows, it certainly encourage to try recipes from this book. Brilliant I really like everything Donna Hay. Quality of the book was of high standard.
