Well, this a a workbook, really, for . As such it is a great tool for parental use.. Well, this a a workbook, really, for a 'specific niche market' target audience, i. Kate Birch's various other books are also extremely well-done. families who have chosen to immunize their kids using Homeoprophylaxis rather than injections. I think it is very well designed, and this program extremely exciting, since therefore many children are receiving ill from shots. So it's not really about plot or anything, but about usability.e. A simple to comprehend book for tracking the progress of kids in an HP training curriculum. Before you order this, you'll want to contact among the program supervisors to discover more regarding the program and observe if it will suit your family's needs. I think it is an extremely great plan and a blessing to my children This is a book for families using the FCHi System. I think it is a really great system and a blessing to my kids, but it isn't a do it yourself project. In case you are just starting to look into HP, start with "THE PERFECT SOLUTION IS" or Isaac Golden's reserve on homeoprophylaxis. it's super short and took about 5mins to read For the price of the book, I thought it had been much for a guide book...it's super brief and took about 5mins to read, 10 for the most part. Good book itself. Strongly suggested for families choosing HP programs because of their families or themselves. It makes monitoring and compliance easy. She's a powerhouse. This book is clearly for parents and children and not for professionals..
