

The image features a close-up of a woman's face, looking directly at the camera. She has dark hair pulled back and is wearing a light-colored top. Overlaid on her face are two circular markers, one on each cheek, with lines extending from them towards the bottom corners of the frame. The background is a light blue and white pattern of concentric circles and hexagons, giving it a futuristic or technological feel. The title 'MIXTO LASER LIFT' is written in a bold, blue, serif font across the upper part of her face.
