Would have enjoyed more info linking body type to choice of accessory (for instance necklace length) rather than generic advice to know your body. It's simple information that you can find in any style magazine or cable television show. Audio like she is very talented and proficient at what she will, but her skill and finesse doesn't translate well in her publication. It really felt a little rushed, and even more about basic style points. I was a little surprised how abrupt the closing is. Short! I don't believe there was anything right here that stood out as even more interesting than simply basic information. Present for my girlfriend - she loved it I read the book after hearing the author speak at Fashionistacon in NYC - brilliant and articulate. My girlfriend loves the content and the new approach. So happy I purchased this publication. Good and thorough review of accessories and how to wear them. Too basic - Read it within an hour and didn't find anything brand-new, creative or insightful. helpful info I like that it is small and covered plenty of useful info and tidbits. We liked the tips about organizing and storing accessories as well as what colors / items were considered the fundamentals. Good basic book Good basic book about accessories. Five Stars Loved! This is good to learn This is good to learn. Many thanks! Proper help!
