Pretty color by number Variety of images. Recommend Awesome gift for older adults get rid of stress helped me to relive pressure Except that this is a color by number book so the work of selecting colors is done for you. Theme is garden type images, a lot of butterflies and some dragonflies and of course flowers. Flowers and birds It was ok, mom liked the book Love it! Can't Display Finished Pictures First of all, I'd not recommend this reserve to anyone who's looking to display their finished work. General, I am delighted! The pages are also very thin and curl if you work with marker. The reason why I gave the reserve three stars instead of two is the variety of pictures and the price. You . You definitely get what you purchase with the inexpensive paper and also the execution is certainly sloppy as a lot of areas in the picture aren't numbered. These are larger print books and simpler design. If it cost a lot more than $6 I would have trained with two stars. Wish they had more colors, though, and more photos.. These are larger printing books and simpler design. You might teach younger children the colour associated with lots. I loved the artist/style a whole lot. Really like how big is the squares/circles to color and the colour chart. Three Stars pretty good for coloring Five Stars Very pleased Thumbs up! Love the bright colours they suggest, brings the webpages alive.. The pages are not perforated and the figures are therefore dark they present through every color except black. Easier than your average adult coloring reserve, put still detailed enough to be mildly challenging.
