Great book for experts and beginners. I am a licensed nail technician and this book is very readable and understand, directions are simple and terminology and pictures are the bonus. and manicure. Display about massage, and nail art for ft and hands. Must have reference This is a very informative and well put together book.. More Nails I'm brushing up on my skill as a manicurist, considering items have changed in 30 years! I'm considering starting a nail golf club (for junior and senior high school young ladies) at the local library and this book will definitely be among my main resources for teaching. Good publication. This is an excellent book and I am keeping it forever and ever! The nail artwork designs section may be the candles on the cake, per say. I'm happy I choose to buy this great little publication. Being spiral bound it is possible to lay it down next to you and follow alongside no problems. Of course that certain was like $100. I will for sure be keeping this one!! Excellent book worth the amount of money. This book will be helpful when I take the nail tech class. It's nearly like textbook that they might use in school. This book lets you know everything from the instruments to use to the illnesses to the anatomy to the basic mani and pedi. It even shows you how to do wraps and acrylic nails with the design. I love this book it has so much information in it.. Complete book!! Great reserve, I would recommend it. Wonderful Book for a Beginner Very step by step with full explanations and product tips. Just okay It's okay, pretty simple. Two Stars It's alright. Great Great Perfect for all nail lovers!!! I had a reserve almost EXACTLY like this when I visited cosmetology school! Crystal clear and lots of close up pictures accompany easy to understand instructions. Love it. It's an A+++++++. Wish I'd have knooooown! I love this one better, it leaves out all of the stuff that is pointless. Five Stars Clear descriptions on the subject of nails, nail care. I love that it reminded me of some issues and gave me tips that I got previously forgotten about!
