I treasure mine. In this book, Joan talks about how she started collecting antique and Faberge jewelry and shows several pieces which were inspirations on her behalf costume jewelry line.. It's not a thick reserve but a fun publication to have if you like her jewelry. I was delightfully amazed in the publication to find that a lot of her 'updated' modern versions of the real thing were so far better and prettier. She also covers how she decides what piece to make and how it begins from a drawing to finally getting an actual piece of jewelry. Remember that this publication was published time ago so that it doesn't cover all her jewelry that was offered by the time of the book's printing; Joan has beautiful pieces. I bought two of these books, with one for a pal. Rivers baubles, from her earlier days. Fantastic book for collectors of Ms Wonderful book for collectors of Ms. It came out in 1995 and is highlighted with photos galore and information on how Ms. Rivers crafted her styles. Honestly her designs are a great deal like KJL whose styles are reminiscent of early Trifari and she does mention her favorite jewelry designers and where she got her inspirations. Still this is an excellent reference book for those who gather Joan Rivers jewelry from the early days. For individuals who started to gather her jewelry later, you can observe she replicated a few of her earlier work for her afterwards QVC years. The publication is full of beautiful pictures as well. Highly recommended. surprise! Have always been a lover of viewing Ms Joan when she involves the purchasing channel, watching her educate us how exactly to dress with design, just by jazzing up boring basic classic outfits with fab jewelery. Then someone mentioned how comprehensive it was with background and all sorts of wonderful pictures, therefore i had to check it out. What a delight! Oh ya, like why would i need a book on jewelery? All of the photos are crisp, clear, and in color and display the jewelry detail, where needed. I haven't had anywhere near this much fun dressing up since i was a kid, and this publication has inspired me ~it's such as a primer concerning introducing jewelery into your wardrobe as a way of looking fabulous darling! A Wonderful gift for a Joan Rivers Enthusiast! I came across this book exciting. Anyone who loves basic jewelry with enjoy viewing the Joan Rivers collection of bands, pins, bracelets, necklaces, and earrings. A treasure well worth keeping. Jewelry by Joan Rivers is an excellent book with beautiful photos of Jewelry in the Joan Rivers series modeled after her own collection given to her by family...Joan tells you just a little about her existence, her famous jewels, and her reasoning behind beginning her own line. She seems very down to earth and shows some of her favorite jewelry from her existence and how she came to acquire them. She after that shows the designs she's made motivated by her personal jewelry. Gem of a publication! Appreciate reading about the jewelry. The history and photographs make it an absolute must for your collection. I've admired Joan Rivers' jewelry for years, but only recently discovered this wonderful reserve. Guaranteed that you will spend hours reading and admiring every page again and again..This book is PERFECTION!. This reserve chronicles her achievements in jewelry style complete with photos of most of these. I can hear Joan describing the jewelry . It's given me an even greater admiration for the writer and her amazing career. Of course, this book includes a full photo spread of all of her lorgnettes which was great since I have the vast majority of them. Lovely pictures. I can hear Joan describing the jewelry. Nevertheless, with few exceptions ,there is absolutely no description which are her designs and that are not. Loved it. A treasure really worth keeping Joan Rivers was one of the most creative people ever---in my estimation. Lovely pictures. Loved it. interesting and inspiring. Love Joan Rivers and her jewelry!! Nice little narrative on interesting jewelry I am collecting Joan Rivers' lorgnettes (magnifying eyeglasses on a chain) and also several of her Russian-inspired jewelry... Vintage Jewelry Cool Book Five Stars Fantastic book, great photos.! If you're a devoted jewelry maker or collector, you will adore Jewelry by Joan Rivers. and of course, jewelry that she designed/sold in the past 20 years or so isn't in the book either. Fun coffee table book Fun book to see most of Joan's jewelry.
