The reader involves understand, through the insights of a genuine "insider", this is and spirit of the "true" Carnival. Schindler is an area icon, the touchstone of the unique cultural expression. Students of cultural and public history in addition to art lovers and designers will share delight in Schindler's masterful recreation, through well-researched and amusing text and beautiful color plates, of the "golden age" of the celebration--an oeuvre to which Schindler provides annually through his own designs for many of the old-range carnival organizations, thus keeping alive the artistic and cultural tradition which he writes in this and his prior books. Savor the "Real" New Orleans Carnival If you wish to view the true New Orleans carnival celebration, have a look through this window opened by its legendary artist/historian, Henri Schindler.
